The unloading personnel wore black-bordered black epaulets. The vehicles subsequently proceeded to the Panzer Kaserne, 1 km southeast of Neubrandenburg via the town. A train consisting of 17 boxcars, each carrying about 20 soldiers wearing black-bordered black epaulets, a field kitchen and billeting equipment was unloaded on the same day on the track west of the Panzer Kaserne. The personnel had no baggage or blankets. They were armed with submachine guns and subsequently entered the installation.

2. On 4 October, the Panzer Kaserne, 1 km southeast of Neubrandenburg was occupied by 1,500 to 2,000 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets. No training activity was noticed. On 1 October, there was firing of machine guns in the barracks yard.
